

True Stories: Everyday Leadership

Prompts for storytelling submission:

Remember, this is a story, not an official communication. Stories can be told in the first person, and should have a beginning, middle, and an end.

Please use below questions as a guide for telling your story.

- What was the opportunity you gave or were given?
- If you provided the opportunity, what struck you about the individual you supported?
- Can you describe the opportunity?
- What challenges did you overcome?
- What did you have to figure out?
- What was the outcome/how has this changed the way you work?
- How can others benefit?
- What did it feel like to go through your story?
- If you were given an opportunity, have you found ways to "pay it forward?"

Suggested categories/"tracks" for stories:

- Focusing on Mission
- Valuing Diversity and Inclusion
- Leading with Influence
- Developing Others
- Working Collaboratively
- Encouraging Innovation
- Demonstrating Accountability
- Communicating Effectively
